CSL- Learning to be a School Leader

The research publication "Learning to be a School Leader in Ireland" is now available. It is intended to assist providers in planning and designing professional learning provision for the continuum of school leaders into the future.

The research included in this publication underpins the model of professional learning for school leadership as well as relevant research pertaining to each stage of the continuum.

You can access the document here. This link is to the e-reader version of the publication on the CSL website and underneath the e-reader on the website is an option to download a PDF version of the publication. It'll take a minute or two to load.

Data Protection Training

A series of online data protection & GDPR training sessions will be carried out by Noeline Kavanagh on the following dates -

- 01 June from 3.30 - 5.00 pm
- 02 June from 3.30 - 5.00 pm
- 03 June from 6.30 - 8.00 pm
- 08 June from 3.30 - 5.00 pm
- 09 June from 3.30 - 5.00 pm
- 10 June from 6.30 - 8.00 pm

This training is designed specifically for special schools/schools with special classes. It is open to principals, deputy principals, school secretaries and BoM members. There will be opportunities to ask questions.

The training will cover many of the points looked at during the in-person training carried out nationwide in 2018-2019. If you weren't able to attend one of those training sessions, this online training will be useful.

If you have any queries about the data protection & GDPR training, or would like to attend, please email info@nabmse.org

Farewell to Miriam

We are sorry to have to say goodbye to Miriam Lewis. Miriam has worked for NABMSE since 2017, on a part-time basis. She has been an exceptional staff member and we will miss her. Thank you Miriam for all your support and goodwill over the years. We wish you every success in your new position.
